Message From Board President, Dan Durow

The golf season is in full swing, the course is in great shape, the pool is open, and social events are happening. So get out there and enjoy the game and support your Club.

The Golf Shop is stocked with all you need including clothing, equipment, snacks, and beverages. If you don't have time for 18 holes, just play 9. The Friday evening scramble is a good way to meet people and find new playing partners too.

And don't forget, The Grill Steak and Seafood Restaurant is ready to serve you a delicious lunch or dinner Tuesday through Sunday. The Club's Board just signed a new five-year lease with the restaurant owners, Austin and Tara, and they will be doing some great new additions and upgrades very soon.

Things are looking up all around at The Dalles Country Club!

News from The Dalles Country Club Woman's Organization

Chicks with Sticks

We heard from both members and guests that the day was really fun. The weather cooperated. We had 13 golf members paired with 11 golf guests making up 6 scramble teams of 4. Some had never golfed; others had some experience. Team names were: Classy and Sassy Gals, WA Wonders, Swinging Sisters, Par-Tee Gals, Dixie Chicks, The Goonies. Travis gave a golfing presentation at the beginning, focusing mostly on putting techniques. We had 3 golf members join 5 guests for the Walk, Talk and Putt activity which included 3 scavenger hunts. The guests were non-golfers, but competed with each other by putting on each of the 9 holes. They thoroughly enjoyed special instructions from Bev Tuttle on each of the 9 greens and she set up on each green with a different putting challenge. We finished the day's activities with a putting game for all guests. First guest to putt to the bottle of wine won the bottle of wine. The non-host lunch at the club house was well attended and the prizes were presented.

The Dalles Country Club Women's Organization just helped with the Oregon Senior Women's Golf Association (OSWGA) with their annual invitational tournament that was held June 22nd. What a huge success! They had 52 golfers competing from nine different Country Clubs. The Grill supplied a wonderful breakfast and lunch that wowed the women. The golfing weather was perfect, sun and no wind! The golf course looked fantastic!

- The winners from TDCC were:
- Gross Dolly Wilkins 40
- Laura Hess 40
- Net Susan Eddy
- KP Dolly Wilkins flight A
- Glenda King flight D

Thank you to all the husbands that assisted being caddies, spotters and setup. Other country clubs commented on how great our husbands are. Thank you also goes to the grounds crew, C.C. Board and volunteers that have done such a great job on the course.

Most of all a huge thank you goes to Randi Condon and Geri Starbuck for chairing the event.

Men's Summer Match Play
